Hongkong, DECEMBER 20TH, 1892.

There were 2,012 visitors to the City Hall Museum last week, of whom 191 were Europeans.

The Northern Pacific steamer Victoria sailed from Victoria, B.C., on Saturday, the 17th inst.,

for San Francisco, via the Straits of Juan de Fuca.

Count H. the Japanese Minister President, is said to be rapidly recovering from the injuries he sustained in his recent jirikihi accident.

The death is announced of Miss West, President of the American Ladies' Temperance Society, at Kansas, from a sudden attack of heart, on the 1st instant.

The earthquake in Japan has spread to Yokohama, where it is said, in Mr. Winslow's factory, where on the 8th inst., seven hundred Customs examination had been destroyed by the fire.

A telegram to the Courier d'Hochimont, dated 14th inst., states that a small village near Lyon, France, at the head of the navigable part of the Rhone, was destroyed by fire.

Customs examination had and the interpreter's boat burnt.

The Japan Mail of the 12th inst., says:—We regret to learn that His Imperial Highness Prince Imperial is very ill. The malady is said to be typhus fever, but we trust that it may not turn out to be serious. The Prince is not naturally robust and a sickness as grave as typhus fever could not fail to express him to considerable danger.

The Band of the 1st Shropshire Light Infantry will play the following programme at the Officers' Mess, Murray Barracks, this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock:—

Lancers "Jubilee" D'Albert-Valle "The Queen's Birthday" Strains Soberton "The Old Guard" Fanfares Song "Horn" Adam.

On the return from Hongkong to Yokohama the 2nd Edolma was the means of rescuing a fisherman, half dead with exposure. Captain Jager reports as follows:—"At 10 o'clock a.m.
4th December sighted a fishing boat four miles distant, showing a flag. Steered for the boat and found two men, one of them dead. The other was half dead and appeared to have been so for two days. The boat still alive was very weak, and when he saw the steamer close by after his attention had been attracted by the blowing of the whistle, he came on to the roof of the boat, rubbed his hands and otherwise showed the greatest anxiety. He was taken on board and the boat hoisted up to the steamer. He appeared to be a Kurnoo. The fishing boat was heavily loaded with board so we had to leave it behind. This was in fact 700 ft. long 100 ft. wide."

The Japanese authorities have framed regulations in connection with the sale of portraits or engravings of the Emperor, Empress Dowager, Empress, and Crown Prince. No. 10 is to be allowed to enter the country either by land or sea without a passport, and if he intends to do so will they be permitted to be sold in open air stalls, or allowed to be displayed on fans, paravans, lanterns, or work pieces, goods, embroidery, hand-bills, or on toy boats.

The China Navigation Co.'s steamer Chingtao, on her voyage from Kobe to Nagasaki, a few days ago, had the Nagasaki Express say, a rare come of running down a Japanese steamer, which, à la Chikusha, ran across her bows, contrary to all the rules of the road. This vessel was said just in time to prevent a collision. This accident happened, there is no doubt, the Japanese would have been held entirely to blame.

What is the price of satin? A Chinaman has just had one of his assayed at 4,300 yen. It seems that he was run over by a carriage driven by a Dr. H. Samson. He sued the doctor in the Tokyo Local Court for 10,730 yen, but failed to obtain damages, but on carrying his case to the Appeal Court he obtained 4,000 yen. This is the value of his whole body. This is a nice problem for some of our mathematicians to solve. —Hung News.

A few having solemnly bound themselves to abide by the law as decision, as arbitrator in the new notorious "antimony case," says the Nagasaki Express, the proprietors of the Ishikawana Antimony Mine are reported to have refused to acknowledge the award, presumably because it goes against their interest. The award was for 1,000 yen, equivalent to about 400,000. The award was given to the Chinese claimant, who had brought his case to the Chinese Government, and the Chinese Government, who had been engaged in the same, had agreed to pay him 100,000 yen. This was the result of a long investigation which has resulted in showing that, what extent perjury can be carried, we never heard of, even in Japan.

In our article on Christmas as it is seen in the state, we omitted to mention the well-known establishment of Messrs. R. Rice and Co., Queen's Road. The preparations made by this firm for the festive season suggest that a large demand is expected, for the stock is replete with every imaginable delicacy and delectable morsel which can be had. The confectionery, fruits, wines, liquors (which latter are a specialty) are displayed attractively, and some new toys from Paris are among the features which will be doubtless much admired.

We are continually invited to admire new exhibits of ingenuity on the part of the Japanese, and invariably under circumstances in which an Irishman would be at a loss. Last night's configuration, says the Japan Gazette, of the 7th inst., provides us with another instance of the peculiar native traits. An old man, who had been a member of the police force, in the heat of a quarrel, and it might reasonably have been expected that in the hurry of self-preservation the others committed to their tender mercies would have been forgotten. Notes. In several instances the lines was promptly—popped down the well, as an eye-witness testifies to seeing them drawn out to dry. This was done, and not out of any particular spite. We believe that most of the bystanders—other than the fire-fighters on the time to take the presentation, however, and to-day many residents are mourning the loss of things that are not. However, as there are not many in Yokohama with only twin lifts the result will be probably only a little lift to trade.

WE ARE FREQUENTLY INVITED TO ADMIRE NEW EXHIBITS OF INGENUITY ON THE PART OF THE JAPANESE, AND INvariably UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH AN IRISHMAN WOULD BE AT A LOSS. LAST NIGHT'S CONFIGURATION, SAYS THE JAPAN GAZETTE, OF THE 7TH INST., PROVIDES US WITH ANOTHER INSTANCE OF THE PEAK TRAITS. AN OLD MAN, WHO HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE POLICE FORCE, IN THE HEAT OF A QUARREL, AND IT MIGHT REASONABLY HAVE BEEN EXPECTED THAT IN THE HURRY OF SELF-PRESERVATION THE OTHERS COMMITTED TO THEIR TENDER MERCIES WOULD HAVE BEEN FORGOTTEN. NOTES. IN SEVERAL INSTANCES THE LINES WAS PROMPTLY—POPPED DOWN THE WELL, AS AN EYE-WITNESS TESTIFIES TO SEEING THEM DRAWN OUT TO DRY. THIS WAS DONE, AND NOT OUT OF ANY PARTICULAR SPIRE. WE BELIEVE THAT MOST OF THE BYSTANDERS—OTHER THAN THE FIRE-FIGHTERS ON THE TIME TO TAKE THE PRESENTATION, HOWEVER, AND TO-DAY MANY RESIDENTS ARE MOURNING THE LOSS OF THINGS THAT ARE NOT. HOWEVER, AS THERE ARE NOT MANY IN YOKOHAMA WITH ONLY TWIN LIFTS THE RESULT WILL BE PROBABLY ONLY A LITTLE LIFT TO TRADE.

We recently reproduced from the Asahi diaries of Tonkin a statement to the French Minister at Peking, M. Lemire, having censured M. Bous d'Astey, the Consul at Lungchow, for having attempted to offend the French, and was removed by the Chinese. We then adduce the corresponding statement to the China Gazette of the 7th inst., which contradicts the statements made. The Consul says the woman in question could not be considered an Amazzone, as she was a widow, and was married twice, once to a Chinese, by whom she has had a child. She endeavored to impress on the Consul in order to follow to Tonkin an Amazzone who had seduced her. A certain impropriety in the proceedings of the Chinese Authorities in the settlement of the affair was followed by the Consul, who, however, was not present at the hearing—other than the fire-fighters on the time to take the presentation, however, and to-day many residents are mourning the loss of things that are not.
